

Biogen-Sponsored Virtual Symposium at the Gerontological Society of America®
Annual Scientific Meeting 2021

Transforming the Alzheimer's disease journey: the role of geriatric specialists in early diagnosis and patient-centered care

Friday, November 12, 2021

08:30–10:00 ET

Chair: James Galvin (USA)

Faculty: Leslie Shaw (USA) and Anna Burke (USA)

Symposium description

Please join our eminent faculty in this Biogen-sponsored virtual symposium navigating through an Alzheimer's disease diagnostic journey, with a focus on the role of geriatric specialists. With the help of a patient case and panel discussion, the faculty will highlight key considerations for optimal detection, diagnosis, and management of Alzheimer's disease. There will be an opportunity to ask questions during a live Q&A.

We look forward to welcoming you to what promises to be a thought-provoking symposium.

Agenda

- 08:30–08:35 Welcome and introduction
James Galvin
- 08:35–08:50 Meet our patient: a clinical presentation of possible cognitive impairment
James Galvin
- 08:50–09:05 Ensuring timely referral: assessment of cognitive complaints
Anna Burke
- 09:05–09:20 Increasing diagnostic accuracy: using biomarkers to consolidate a differential diagnosis
Leslie Shaw
- 09:20–09:35 Patient-focused care: a framework for optimizing Alzheimer’s disease management
James Galvin
- 09:35–09:55 Panel discussion and Q&A
Anna Burke, James Galvin, and Leslie Shaw
- 09:55–10:00 Summary and close
James Galvin